STATEN ISLAND POLICEMEN

Capt. Hallock and Men Praised for Operating Ferries in Emergency.

All Staten Island raises its hat to Acting Police Captain James W. Hallock and his police crew, who operated the Staten Island ferryboats last week after they had been tied up by the strike of marine workers. This morning a testimonial letter was received by Captain Hallock from Dr. L. A. Dreyus of the Staten Island Civic League "The importance of your service to the city, and particularly to the people of Staten Island, cannot be measured, the letter read, "and the obligation of the people to you and to your comrades cannot be adequately expressed. But we want you to know that you have given new meaning to the term which every New Yorker rejoices to apply to his police, and that it is with added sest that we hall you and your com-
